

In case of sickness, etc., the State's Attorney shall designate another justice 117 C. That if any justice of the peace so selected, as a police justice for Easton District, is unable by reason of sickness, absence, relationship, or for any other temporary cause whatever to attend his duties as such police justice, it shall be the duty of the State's Attorney for said county to designate and require another justice of the peace to perform the duties of said police justice so sick, absent or otherwise unable to perform the duties of his said office, so long as the same may be necessary, or until the Governor shall select another to perform said duties, and the said State's Attorney shall Compensation forthwith certify any selection he may make to the County Commissioners of Talbot County. The justice so required to perform said duties as police justice shall receive the same compensation prescribed for said police justice, and shall be paid by the said County Commissioners, who shall deduct the same from the salary of the police justice for whom he was serving.

Lawful for any justice to issue a State writ, etc. 117 D. That it shall be lawful for any justice of the peace for Easton District, where the police justice is not accessible, to issue a State writ for the arrest of any person violating any of the laws of this State, or any ordinances of any of the incorporated towns of said Easton District; but when issued by any justices of the peace other than the police justice, said writ shall be made returnable before the police justice, and not before the justice issuing the same; the said police justice being alone authorized to try criminal cases, and when said writ is so issued and returned, the said justice so issuing the same shall be allowed the fee therefor now fixed by law, which fee shall be taxed in the cost of the case and paid by Talbot County, unless the same be adjudged against the party arrested, and paid by him.

Duty of officer making arrest 117 E. That whenever any person shall be arrested upon any criminal charge, or for the violation of any law of this State, or for any of the ordinances of any incorporated towns of Easton District, it shall be the duty of the officer making said arrest to take the person so arrested before the police justice selected under this Act, if the same shall have been issued by or made returnable before him; and if such arrest is made without the writ or warrant, it shall be the duty of said officer to take the said person before the aforesaid police justice.

Justices of the peace shall make quarterly reports of all fines, etc. 117 F. That every justice of the peace selected under this Act as police justice shall file with the County Commissioners of Talbot County, on the first days of January, April, July and October in each and every year, an account, verified by
